

WHALE SONG SANCTUARY RETREAT

Whale Song Sanctuary
82-5988B Napoopoo Rd.
Captain Cook, Hawaii 96704
South Kona, Big Island

Directions

Upon exiting the Kona Airport, turn right on Highway 19 – Queen Kaahumanu Highway.

You are approximately 25 miles from Whalesong Sanctuary.

Continue South through the town of Kailua-Kona on Highway 19.

As you pass through Kailua, the number and name of the Highway changes to Highway 11 – Mamalahoa Highway.

Stay on this road and continue South.

When you have traveled approximately 20 miles, you will see a sign that says “Kealakekua Bay” with an arrow pointing to the right.

Immediately after that will be Napoopoo Road.

Turn right on Napoopoo Road. This road is very windy and continues downhill for 4.5 miles.

Travel exactly 4.2 miles on Napoopoo Road.

At the “Y” intersection of Middle Keei Road and Napoopoo Road, keep right & stay on Napoopoo.

At 4.2 miles turn right on a private road with a sign that reads: ALOHA

Travel about 2 blocks to the Cul-de-Sac.

Keep left at the Cul-de-Sac and continue up the private road that goes steeply uphill.

There is a large yellow sign that says Private Drive No Trespassing. Continue up this drive.

It will curve to the left as you reach the top. As you round the curve you will see two columns marking the entrance.

There is also a statue of Ganesha the Indian Elephant Deity.

Turn left here and continue up the gravel drive and park next to the house.
